

Enhancing Tokyo Tech Education and Research Quality through Administrative Reforms for Internationalization

Tokyo Institute of Technology

Provide globally recognized education and research

OUR GOAL

Aiming to become one of the world's top ten research universities

Share Tokyo Tech Quality with the world

Education	Research	Globalization	Contribution to Society
Produce graduates who will thrive in a global society as the world's top researchers and leaders	Achieve worldwide success in research and innovation & develop infrastructure to enhance research	Create a global environment for education and research	Contribute to society through research and educational achievement

Project Objectives and Specific Measures

Innovations for globalized education

Assurance of an internationally recognized education system

Academic tuning of curricula and teaching methods for easier credit transfer	International dissemination of education information	Acquisition of international accreditations (Euro-Ace, JABEE, etc.)

Require study abroad experiences for all students	Invite faculty members from the world's top universities

Innovations for globalized research

Foster an open and global environment to attract the world's best researchers and student

Versatile management which encourages leadership and mobility for researchers	Promotion of international collaborative research	Implementation of a doctoral researcher exchange program

Provide graduate education at the world's most advanced research hub

Administrative reforms for internationalization

Enhance personnel, infrastructure and finance management systems to better support internationalization

Personnel	Infrastructure	Finance
Aggressive investment in personnel for target fields	Increase in space at the president's discretion	Swift injection of funds into target fields