Tokyo Tech Academy for Leadership

Experts will support your development work

A briefing session for "Programming Boot Camp"

✔ A team of experts about web application development will provide full support with you.
✔ In addition to web application development, you can learn programming skills if you wish (programming beginners will be welcome).
✔ Web development will be enjoyable and be engaged by a team of around 3 students based on your own web application idea.
✔ You can expect to enhance your "leadership" through application development work.
✔ Any of Tokyo Tech students, both undergraduates & graduates are welcome.

Please join a briefing meeting !
