

3rd Tokyo Tech LIBERAL ARTS MINI SYMPOSIUM
BEYOND PREVENTION OF TOKYO DISASTER
Sustainability of Society and Economy

Saturday, January 21st, 2017 @West 9 Building, Ookayama

POSTER SESSION *Poster session is open to Students and Staff only.

Venue: Collaboration Room and Media Hall

Time: 09:00 - 10:30

Presented by Path Breaking Liberal Arts Class

SPECIAL LECTURE SESSION

Venue: Multi-Purpose Digital Hall

10:40 Opening Remarks

Hironao Kaneko (Tokyo Tech.)

10:45- SPECIAL LECTURE 1

“What we could do at Evacuation Center in Our University Lessons Learned from Kumamoto Earthquake 2016”

Dr. Miwa ABE (Kumamoto Univ., Organization for Community Development)

11:05- SPECIAL LECTURE 2

“Effect of Evacuation from Nuclear Disaster to Local Society”

Prof. Hiroyasu YUHASHI (Shizuoka Univ.)

11:25- SPECIAL LECTURE 3

“The role of medical institutions in the event of a disaster”

Dr. Hiroshi OKAZAKI, M.D.

(Japan Organization of Occupational Health and Safety, Kanto Rosai Hospital)

11:45- General Remarks

Vice President Tetsuya MIZUMOTO (Tokyo Tech.)

11:50- Poster Awards & Closing Ceremony

Guest Speakers, Vice President MIZUMOTO and,

Dean of School of Materials and Chemical Technology, Yuji WADA

RECEPTION PARTY 12:30 -

Venue: Collaboration Room

Participation Fee: ¥500(student), ¥1,000(Other)

Preparation members of Independent Studies Courses
Assoc. Prof. Hironao Kaneko, Prof. Takehiro Inohara, Assoc. Prof. Daisuke Harada
(Institute for Liberal Arts)

CONTACT: kaneko.h.ad-cnt170121@ml.m.titech.ac.jp