

Doctoral Academic Domestic Training for AY2023

1. Domestic Training setting

You need to arrange by yourself to participate in domestic training, for example, conducting practical research training at a domestic university, a governmental research institution like RIKEN or AIST, or another equivalent one for two weeks or more under the guidance of your supervisor professor (Lab.'s "Sensei").

It should be noted that the domestic university or the governmental research institution has already made an internship contract with, or has been specially approved by Tokyo Tech.

2. Application to Doctoral Academic Domestic Training

Fill the application form of Doctoral Academic Domestic Training, and submit it to IIDP Office after you consulted firmly with your supervisor professor.

This subject is available in English only when your training is conducted in English.

3. IIDP's approval

The application materials submitted will be examined by the IIDP Committee. After the committee approve your application, the IIDP Office directly will inform you.

4. Career Development Course registration

If you receive a positive mail from IIDP, you need to register for Doctoral Academic Domestic Training (LAC.A639) via “教務 Web システム(Web system for Students & Faculty)” in the Tokyo Tech Portal, just in the same way as do for the other course registration.

Please note that one-time domestic training can be registered only for one regular subject. No duplicated enrollment with other subjects such as seminars is allowed.

5. Domestic Training

6. After the Practice

The training report must be submitted to the IIDP Office within two weeks after the training ends. The credit and wage will be paid after all the procedure is completed.
