

Application Guidelines for the Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship (University Recommendation -SGU-) commencing in April 2022

Enrollment Date: April 1, 2022

Number of Awards: A few

Program Types: Doctoral Programs, Master's Programs

Student Application Period: August 11 – October 20, 2021

International students with outstanding academic records who are applying to Tokyo Institute of Technology as regular, degree-seeking students in April 2022, and current Tokyo Tech students who intend to advance from a master's program to a doctoral program at the Institute in April 2022 may be eligible to apply for the Japanese Government (Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology: MEXT) Scholarship (University Recommendation -SGU-). The number of awards is very limited.

The qualifications stated below are based on the guidelines provided by MEXT for the previous round of recruitment. The new guidelines for the MEXT Scholarship commencing in April 2022 will be published in December 2021. Should there be any changes to the application requirements, announcement will be made through each applicant's prospective academic supervisor at Tokyo Tech.

Students currently receiving the MEXT Scholarship (University Recommendation -SGU-) who wish to continue their graduate-level programs at Tokyo Tech on the same scholarship must apply for continuation of funding for 2022.

The Application for Individual Assessment of Admission Eligibility and supplemental documents are required for applicants who apply under condition (3). Refer to the application guidelines for International Graduate Program (C) for details.

Master's program applicants must be currently studying in Tokyo Tech GSEP and be expected to successfully complete their undergraduate program by the date of enrollment.

5. Health

Applicants must be physically and mentally able to pursue studies at Tokyo Tech.

6. Arrival in Japan

Applicants who intend to come to Japan to newly enroll at Tokyo Tech must be able to arrive in Japan during the period of April 1 to April 7. Departure from their home residence should be on or after April 1, 2022.

7. Visa

For those who intend to enroll in Tokyo Tech from overseas, applicants shall, in principle, newly obtain a "Student" visa that is valid as of April 1, 2022 from the Japanese diplomatic mission located in their country of nationality, and enter Japan with the residence status of "Student." For all other applicants, if the applicant already has another residence status in Japan (i.e., "Permanent resident," "Long-term resident,” etc.), the applicant must change it and newly enter Japan under “Student” status. Moreover, applicants should be aware that after expiration of their status as a MEXT Scholarship Student, if they again apply for their original resident status of “Permanent resident” or “Long-term resident,” such resident statuses might not be granted. The applicant should also be aware that provision of scholarship benefits will be stopped if they arrive in Japan without a newly obtained “Student” visa.

8. Non-eligibility

The following persons are not eligible for the scholarship, and if non-eligibility is identified after they are selected for the scholarship, the individual must withdraw from the scholarship.

- (1) Those who are military personnel or military civilian employees at the time of their arrival in Japan or during the period they receive the scholarship
- (2) [For newly enrolled students] Those who are not able to arrive in Japan by the last date of the period specified by MEXT or Tokyo Tech
- (3) Those who cannot complete their master’s or doctoral degree within the standard duration of study (Students taking registered absence from school are excluded)
- (4) Those who apply for this scholarship through other universities or who are currently also applying to another program under the Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship system. This includes programs for which scholarship payment will begin in FY2022, even if their final selection results have not been decided yet
- (5) Those who intend to receive a scholarship from an organization other than MEXT, including a government organization in the applicant’s home country, after the start of the MEXT Scholarship period
- (6) Those who do not meet the academic background qualifications by the date required by their program
- (7) Those who held dual nationality at the time of application and whose renunciation of Japanese nationality before the date of their arrival in Japan cannot be verified
- (8) Those who, at or after the time of application, plan to engage in long-term research (such as fieldwork or an internship) outside Japan or plan to take a long-term leave of absence from Tokyo Tech.

9. Other

The MEXT Scholarship will be granted to those who are willing to contribute to mutual understanding between Japan and their home country by participating in activities at schools and in communities during their studies in Japan while contributing to the internationalization of Japan. After their graduation, (past) recipients are expected to make efforts to promote relations between their home country and Japan, by maintaining close relations with the university they attended, by cooperating with surveys and questionnaires, and, after returning to their home country, by cooperating with relevant projects and events conducted by the Japanese diplomatic mission, etc. located there.

Scholarship Period:

From April 2022 to March 2023 (12 months)

Tokyo Tech-recommended MEXT Scholarship students are not permitted to enroll in a graduate program at a university other than Tokyo Tech.

Note 1: If a recipient desires to continue as a MEXT Scholarship student in a Tokyo Tech master's or doctoral program, they may apply for the MEXT Scholarship (University Recommendation –SGU-) again, provided that they have made outstanding academic achievement that meets certain criteria.

Note 2: Current MEXT Scholarship (University Recommendation –SGU-) recipients who are scheduled to complete a master's or doctoral program at Tokyo Tech in September 2022 and are selected for the MEXT Scholarship (University Recommendation –SGU-) again through this round of recruitment will receive the scholarship from April 2022 until September 2022.

Important notice for applicants for doctoral programs

MEXT will stop provision of the scholarship benefits in March 2024 because MEXT's Top Global University Project (SGU) will be terminated in that month. Therefore, students will not receive the scholarship benefits from April 2024 onwards and have to pay the tuition fee.

Scholarship Benefits:

1. Stipend

Scholarship recipients will be provided a monthly stipend of 147,000 JPY (master's program) or 148,000 JPY (doctoral program). This stipend is subject to change as specified by the regulations of the MEXT Scholarship program.

2. Travel Allowance

MEXT does not provide funding for travel to/from Japan.

3. Education Fee

Tuition and admission fees will be waived by Tokyo Tech.

Cessation of Scholarship Benefits:

MEXT will stop provision of scholarship benefits in the following situations. Should any of the following apply, the scholarship recipient may be ordered to return part of, or the entirety of, the scholarship benefits received up to that time. Provision of scholarship benefits may also be suspended during the period up to the decision on the disposition of the matter.

- (1) The recipient made a false statement on their application
- (2) The recipient violated an article of the Pledge to the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology
- (3) The recipient violated a Japanese law and was sentenced and imprisoned for an indefinite period or for a period exceeding 1 year
- (4) The recipient was suspended from Tokyo Tech or received other punishment, or was removed from Tokyo Tech register as a disciplinary action in accordance with the regulations of Tokyo Tech
- (5) It has been determined that it will be impossible for the recipient to complete their graduate program within the standard period of study because of poor academic grades or suspension or absence from Tokyo Tech
- (6) The recipient arrived in Japan without having newly acquired “Student” status, or changed their residence status to one other than “Student”
- (7) The recipient received another scholarship (excluding those specified for research expenditures)
- (8) The recipient withdrew from Tokyo Tech or moved to another university
- (9) Tokyo Tech is no longer a member of the Top Global University Project (SGU). (including the termination of the project)

The monthly stipend will not be granted to a recipient who takes a leave of absence or is long absent from Tokyo Tech.
