8. Other

The MEXT Scholarship will be granted to those who are willing to contribute to mutual understanding between Japan and their home country by participating in activities at schools and in communities during their studies in Japan while contributing to the internationalization of Japan. After their graduation, (past) recipients are expected to make efforts to promote relations between their home country and Japan, by maintaining close relations with the university they attended, by cooperating with surveys and questionnaires, and, after returning to their home country, by cooperating with relevant projects and events conducted by the Japanese diplomatic mission, etc. located there.

Scholarship Period:

From October 2022 to March 2023 (6 months)

Tokyo Tech-recommended MEXT Scholarship students are not permitted to enroll in a graduate program at a university other than Tokyo Tech.

Note: If a recipient desires to continue as a MEXT Scholarship student in a Tokyo Tech graduate program, they may apply for the MEXT Scholarship (University Recommendation (SGU)) again, provided that they have made outstanding academic achievement that meets certain criteria. However, MEXT will stop provision of the scholarship benefits in March 2024 because MEXT's Top Global University Project (SGU) will be terminated in that month. Therefore, students will not receive the scholarship benefits from April 2024 onwards and have to pay the tuition fee.

Scholarship Benefits:

1. Stipend

Scholarship recipients will be provided a monthly stipend of 147,000 JPY (master's program). This stipend is subject to change as specified by the regulations of the MEXT Scholarship program.

2. Education Fee

Tuition and admission fees will be waived by Tokyo Tech.

Cessation of Scholarship Benefits:

MEXT will stop provision of scholarship benefits in the following situations. Should any of the following apply, the scholarship recipient may be ordered to return part of, or the entirety of, the scholarship benefits received up to that time. Provision of scholarship benefits may also be suspended during the period up to the decision on the disposition of the matter.

- (1) The recipient made a false statement on their application
- (2) The recipient violated an article of the Pledge to the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology
- (3) The recipient violated a Japanese law and was sentenced and imprisoned for an indefinite period or for a period exceeding 1 year
- (4) The recipient was suspended from Tokyo Tech or received other punishment, or was removed from Tokyo Tech register as a disciplinary action in accordance with the regulations of Tokyo Tech
- (5) It has been determined that it will be impossible for the recipient to complete their graduate program within the standard period of study because of poor academic grades or suspension or absence from Tokyo Tech
- (6) The recipient changed their resident status to one other than "Student"
- (7) The recipient received another scholarship (excluding those specified for research expenditures)
- (8) The recipient withdrew from Tokyo Tech or moved to another university
- (9) Tokyo Tech is no longer a member of the Top Global University Project (SGU). (including the termination of the project)

The monthly stipend will not be granted to a recipient who takes a leave of absence or is long absent from Tokyo Tech.
