Research Plan

Diagrams may be included to aid clarity. Keep in mind that you will be submitting a report detailing your achievements later (April enrollees will submit their report the following March, and September enrollees will submit theirs the following September). Recipients of the following year's special scholarship will be selected based on the report. Applicants may use software other than Excel to write the Research Plan. When completed, it must be printed on an A4 sheet of paper (less than one page), include the applicant's name, and be stapled to the first page of the Application Form.
