

Held in Tokyo

Imperial - Science Tokyo Global Fellows Programme 2025

'Sustainability Innovation for Food Consumption and Production'

Apply by
Friday
July 18

Call for Application by Doctoral Students

GFP is a five-day international exchange program in which doctoral students from Science Tokyo and Imperial College London, a prestigious British university and partner university of Science Tokyo, work together to solve problems under the theme of “sustainability innovation for food consumption and production”. The programme theme will align with the UN Sustainable Development Goal #12.

- ◎Period: Monday, November 10 – Friday November 14, 2025
- ◎Venue: National Olympics Memorial Youth Center (NOMYC), Tokyo (Nov.10-12)
Science Tokyo Ookayama Campus (Nov.13, 14)
- ◎Accommodation: NOMYC (Nov.10-14)
※No charge ※Shared twin room
- ◎Eligibility: Doctoral Students
※Students of all nationalities, departments and majors are eligible to apply
- ◎Credit (Applied for students of the Science and Engineering schools)
: LAH.C618 “Global Camp 2” (2 credits)

Contact: Study Abroad Support Group
Global Education Division
outbound@adm.isct.ac.jp

For more information

